IRRIGATION BONDS.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS SETTLED BY JUDGE MORROW.

Modesto District Sets Up the Queer Defense That It Was Not Legally Organized for Many Reasons.

Rights of Bondholders Under the Wright Law Directly Concerned and Affirmed in the Important Action.

Homer Lee Sues MacLean Hospital. Code Commission Makes Report. Governor's Appointments—A Suicide at Spokane.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—The bonds of the Modesto Irrigation District were today pronounced valid by Judge Morrow of the United States Circuit Court in the case of George Herring vs. the Modesto Irrigation District. This is an action upon irrigation bonds, and presents questions which have not yet come before the courts, but which are important, as they vitally concern the many millions of dollars' worth of irrigation bonds now outstanding in this State.

The defendant set up in its answer that the organization of the district was imperfect and illegal on many grounds. It was claimed that the original petition by which the district was formed was not signed by fifty free-holders owning agricultural lands; that no property petition or notice of presentation of the petition to the Board of Supervisors was given, and that the business of the district had not been conducted legally.

It was furthermore claimed that a large portion of the original district had been subsequently excluded; that this rendered the whole organization invalid; that the lands within the district were not arid, and therefore did not require irrigation, and that no results had ever been obtained from the irrigation system in that district. All these defenses, Judge Morrow holds, may not be set up by the district in an action upon its own bonds. He holds that the corporation cannot set up its own illegality, and is estopped from now asserting, after its bonds have been issued, that it never was a district, and therefore should not be called upon to pay the bonds.

The various features of the Wright Irrigation laws have been before the State and national courts in many cases, but this is the first case in which the rights of the bondholders have been directly concerned. All other actions have been either to set aside confirmation proceedings, or by a taxpayer to enjoin the payment of taxes. The court holds that the rulings in these cases are not applicable when the rights of the bondholders come to be considered. In consequence, the complaint filed by the plaintiff is held to be sufficient upon which to base an action.

CHOPPED TO FRAGMENTS.

Horrible Butchery of Old Man Baker and Wife.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ANGELS' CAMP, June 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A shocking story of crime was brought to Angels' Camp tonight by Jacob Whitson, a logger, who rode forty-two miles from Molinas Camp. At an early hour yesterday woman, arrived at Timber Camp, and, arousing the foreman, told him that old man Baker, a pioneer rancher of the vicinity, had been killed.

John Stetson, boss of the logging crew, and half a dozen of his men set out at once for Baker ranch, where they discovered the body of Baker and his wife, chopped into fragments, lying upon the floor of the cabin in a pool of blood. The head of Mrs. Baker had been chopped from her neck and lay under a chair, a few feet from the body. The man was horribly gashed in a dozen places, and the left side of his face had been chopped into mince-meat. Two hundred dollars in money and a bloody axe were found in the room. The aged man returned to their camp and, placing a rope about the neck of Manuela, swore they would hang her to the highest branch of the nearest tree if she did not confess all she knew of the murder. The girl reluctantly acknowledged that she believed her lover, a young man named Biggs, was the assassin. According to Manuela, Biggs is a nephew of the Bakers, tried to intimidate the old man into deeding him the ranch owned by Baker. The latter offered to compromise and give the young man twenty acres. This was not satisfactory to Biggs, and Wednesday morning he left his camp, telling Manuela that he would be a rich man on his return, if not he would bring Baker's scalp home.

Immediately after the squaw's confession, a party of armed men started in pursuit of the murderer. Up to this writing no news from the pursuing party had been received. Manuela is regarded as a desperate man, and will probably resist capture to the death.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID.

San Jose Salesman Ends His Life.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SAN JOSE, June 30.—Ben M. Bury, a popular young man employed as a salesman by T. W. Hobson & Co., clothing store, drank carbolic acid at the store at 3 o'clock this afternoon and died in fifteen minutes. No cause is known for his deed.

FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN JOSE, June 30.—Bury had been drinking heavily of late, and from the fact that he had been borrowing money it is said that financial difficulties induced him to commit the deed. He was treasurer of the local court of Foresters of America, and owed that institution $2,000. His successor had been elected, but not installed.

CODE COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

They Have Finished the Most Important Work in Hand.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SACRAMENTO, June 30.—Code Commissioners A. Caminetti, R. H. Bulla and T. W. H. Shanahan today filed their report with the Governor as follows:

"Office of the Commissioners for the Revision and Reform of the Law: "SACRAMENTO (Cal.) June 30, 1930. "To Hon. Henry T. Gage, Governor of California: Sir—We respectfully report that we have this day filed with the Hon. Charles F. Curry, Secretary of State, an additional partial report of the Commission for the Revision and Reform of the Law, said report consisting of the revised Political Code, fully completed and ready for printing. "This volume was practically completed several months ago, and would have been filed as required by law, had it not been for the inability of the State Printing Office to print the same during the late session of the Legislature. Such being the fact, the commissioners deemed it advisable to withhold the filing thereof in order that such statutes and amendments adopted at said session, as properly belonged in the Political Code, might be incorporated therein.

"This purpose involved the rearrangement to some extent, and the rewriting of a very considerable portion of the work of revision already performed. This labor has now been performed, and the result is embodied in the report herein referred to.

"The remainder of the work of codification and revision is small compared with that already accomplished. In the work of carrying into effect the Political Code the statutes passed since the adoption of the codes, which statutes should have been originally enacted as a part of the Political Code, is far greater than that of a similar nature connected with all the other codes combined. The laws relating to municipal corporations, comprising numerous and important statutes, hitherto constituting an unintelligible jumble, have been codified, and composed several hundred pages of said report.

"The acts appertaining to State officers, commissioners and public institutions, which have been scattered through many volumes of our statute law, have all been codified, and are incorporated in the Political Code.

"The County Government Act and numerous other statutes relating to the government of cities have also been systematized and inserted therein; this of itself requiring great expenditure of time and labor.

"A large portion of the Code of Civil Procedure remains. It is the intention and purpose of the commission to compile, also, a volume to be designated as the 'Uncodified Statutes,' to be composed of statutes special or temporary in their nature, or otherwise not proper to become a part of either of the codes. A more detailed report of the progress of the commission will be submitted to the Governor when the entire work is completed."

TOOK THE PLUNGE.

Mentally-unbalanced Stone Mason Drowns Himself at Spokane.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SPOKANE (Wash.), June 30.—"My wife and children are down there in the water, and I am going after them." So said a man on the Post-street bridge, this morning. True to his words, less than ten minutes afterward he made the fatal plunge into the waters below, in view of officers who were coming to prevent the deed. The man is probably Paul Reuther, a stone mason who arrived from California recently. He leaves a family. For several days Reuther has been despondent about his family, and had acted queerly. There is little doubt that the man was mentally unbalanced.

When the body struck the water, it disappeared. Twenty people saw the man jump over, but not one saw a trace of him afterward. He had been coaxed away from the bridge earlier in the day, and his strange actions caused the summoning of the police. The patrol wagon was coming at full speed when he made the fatal leap.

QUESTION OF LICENSE.

Capt. Birmingham Reverses the Decision of Inferior Inspectors.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—Capt. John Birmingham, the superior inspector of steam vessels on this coast, rendered a decision today in the case of the collision of the steamer City of Kingston, and the British steamer Glenogle, which occurred April 23 last, at Commencement Bay, Puget Sound. The Kingston was totally wrecked, and the decision of the local inspectors at Seattle was that Pilot J. H. Brando, who was in charge of the Kingston, was responsible for the wreck. Brando's license was revoked by the inspectors.

Several days ago Brando appealed to the supervising inspector, and it was on this appeal that Capt. Birmingham rendered his decision today. The supervising inspector reverses the decision of the lower court, and Brando will now have his license restored. The supervising inspector does not decide who was responsible for the wreck. He decides that as the City of Kingston was under British register, a United States licensed pilot could not be legally employed on said vessel. The decision is the same as in the case of Capt. H. C. Thomas, who lost the steamer Mexico in Alaskan waters.

RAILROAD AGREEMENT.

The Santa Fe Secures a Route to Stockton.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—Tomorrow the Santa Fe's contract with the Southern Pacific to jointly use, with the latter, its Tehachan division between-Bakersfield-and-Mojave, will go into effect. At Bakersfield a piece of track two miles in length has been constructed, to connect the Valley Railroad division of the Santa Fe with the Southern Pacific tracks. So the Santa Fe has a direct line of connection as far north as Stockton. For a few weeks the Santa Fe will not run its own trains between Mojave and Bakersfield, but will rely on the freight to and from Stockton and points east of Mojave will be hauled in Southern Pacific trains between Mojave and Bakersfield.

The lease by the Santa Fe of tracks over the Bakersfield-Mojave division of the Southern Pacific is for ninety-nine years. Each company is to pay so much per car for the maintenance of that division, which includes operating and repair expenses. Both companies are also to pay jointly for the annual interest on the bonded debt of that piece of road.

WILL TRY MCKENZIE.

Death of Jesse Walters Does Not Save the Ex-Sheriff.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—John A. Hosmer, ex-Assistant District Attorney of this city, who has been specially retained by the state to prosecute ex-Sheriff George W. McKenzie of Napa, despite the death of Jesse Walters.

Walters was charged with the murder, and McKenzie was held as an accomplice, on strong circumstantial evidence that the ex-Sheriff lured Young Cook to his nephew's stable, so that Walters could shoot him. Walters and Cook had some quarrel over Mrs. Cook, and jealousy was supposed to be the cause of the murder.

The case of McKenzie has been set in the Superior Court for trial on September 26.

MUST TAKE HIS CHANCES.

Charles E. Laidlaw Only One of the Pacific Bank's Creditors.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—Superior Judge Seawell today gave judgment for the defendant in the suit brought by Charles E. Laidlaw against the Pacific Bank.

Laidlaw sued on an assigned claim from Dr. R. H. McDonald to recover $97,000, alleged to be due Dr. McDonald by the bank on a preferred claim.

Judge Seawell finds that the bank never owed Dr. McDonald anything, except for the shares of stock he owned in the corporation; that the bank owed more than its capital stock was worth, and was bankrupt. Laidlaw must take his chances with other stockholders and creditors of the unfortunate concern.

MARVELOUS MILE RIDE OF WHEELMAN MURPHY.

Paced by a Locomotive, He Goes the Distance in Fifty-seven and Four-fifths Seconds Near Maywood, L. I.

He Was Weak and Dazed at the Finish, but Soon Regained His Normal Condition and Says He's Satisfied.

Jockey Reiff Meets Prince of Wales. Pillsbury Wins Again at Chess. Columbia at New York. Races and Ball.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] NEW YORK, June 30.—Charles M. Murphy of the Kings County Wheelmen rode a mile on a bicycle, paced by a locomotive, in 57-4-5 sec. today. His course was a two-mile board track on a siding of the Long Island Railway. Murphy followed an engine and a day coach, the latter being provided with a hood, which acted as a wind shield for the rider. The board track was laid near Maywood, L. I., and extended from that station two miles east, and was as nearly perfect to a level as skill could make it.

Fully 3000 people saw Murphy make his daring ride. Engineer Sam Booth had his hand on the throttle of engine 74 when the word was given to start. At ten minutes past 5 o'clock the engine started at a rapid rate, and before 400 yards had been traversed was running at the rate of fifty miles an hour. Murphy was keeping well within the hood. As they neared the beginning of the mile stretch the pace was a mile a minute, and a cloud of dust obscured everything from the view of the spectators who lined the banks on either side.

On entering the space which would test his speed, Murphy shouted: "I'm all right, send her along," but there was no necessity for his remarks regarding speed, as the engine was sending the big steam flyer along at top speed. The quarter was reached in 15 sec. and the half in 29-2-5 sec. The times for the three-quarters were: Messrs. Bieles and Stoll, the former registering 44 and the latter 43-4-5. At the finish two of the watches showed 57-4-5, one 57-3-5 another 58 and the fifth 57-3-4, which was held by Sheriff Creamer. The timers agreed that Murphy had covered the distance in 57-4-5 sec.

Those on the back platform who watched Murphy all through his wonderful ride, stated that the rider's handle-bars had knocked against the rubber buffet at least six times, and each time the concussion sent him back fully six inches. Murphy always had strength enough to regain this distance. During the last quarter of a mile the rider covered the ground for the greater part fully a wheel's length outside of the hood, but as he passed the finish he was close up. Then two strong men on board the train reached down and lifted him aboard the car in safety. Their action undoubtedly saved Murphy's life, because he was then in such a weak condition that had he been unable to remain on the wheel he would have been unable to control it, and a serious if not fatal, accident might have happened.

Murphy was carried "to the front part of the car, and laid on a cot, where a physician administered to him, and in less than five minutes the cyclist was able to converse with those around him. Murphy seemed dazed at first, and said in answer to many queries as to why he felt so many times: "I did that so I might not come in contact with the planks which were being torn up in front of me."

Later on, however, he did not refer to this, but said: "I've always felt that I could do this. Now that I have done it, I am satisfied, and I have many others." Before the train had reached Babylon, he had regained his normal condition, and was back on his feet.

Murphy rode a 28-inch wheel, geared to 120, with 6½-inch crank-hangers, and the weight of the machine was 20½ pounds.

GIVE UP THEIR GUNS.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION PACIFIES THE SAMOANS.

Tanu and Mataafa Surrender Their Arms and Comply With Peaceful Terms Dictated by the Envoy. Government of the Country.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] APIA, (Samoa), June 15. (Wired from San Francisco, June 30.)—Peace and quiet now reign in Samoa, in marked contrast to the warlike scenes of two months ago. The arrival of the auxiliary cruiser Badger May 12, with the international commission on board, caused a distinct change in affairs here. The commission lost no time, but went to work immediately, electing Mr. Tripp chairman and Mr. Morgan secretary.

The commissioners held interviews first with King Tanu and then with Mataafa. Tanu was not at first recognized as king by the commission. Tanu and his chiefs readily agreed to give up their arms and stated that they were prepared to accept any formal government the commission might recommend, even if the kingship was abolished.

The following day Mataafa and his party came aboard the Badger, singing songs and flying the Samoan flag. The rebels were warned to take down the flag, which they did. The commissioners explained to the chief that they had come to make peace, and Mataafa said that he was tired of fighting, as were his chiefs. He said his party would recognize any government fixed by the commission, but he preferred to have a king of Samoa, as it was an old established institution. Mataafa readily agreed to give up the guns held by his party, but insisted that, as the weapons were the private property of the natives, they should receive compensation for them. The commissioners issued a proclamation stating that the guns would either be returned or proper payment made for them after all troubles had been settled. This, of course, means that payment will be made, as it would be folly to return the weapons. Mataafa's party asked if they could be represented by attorneys before the commission, but their request was declined.

After the Mataafa men had turned in eighteen hundred rifles and the Tanu supporters two thousand more, Tanu was invited on board the Badger. There he was informed that the commissioners supported the decision of Chief Justice Chambers, and that he had been king of Samoa ever since the decision had been rendered. Tanu said that he was willing to do anything for the good of Samoa and at the request of the commissioners, resigned his kingship to them. The commission is now engaged in writing its report.

The abolition of the kingship and the appointment of a mayor will relieve the municipality of an official drawing a salary of $5000 a year, and who, in the past, has been only a source of friction in Apia. The judicial and diplomatic functions of the consuls will be greatly restricted, and the commissioners recognize the fact that the Supreme Court and one law is sufficient for the needs of Samoa. Revenue will be raised by indirect taxation, by means of increased customs duties and the poll tax will be abolished. The licenses and tax rates of Apia will remain as formerly under the treaty. The Supreme Court will remain as under the treaty. An administrator or governor will be appointed, who will not be a subject of any of the treaty powers. He is to be assisted by a legislative council of three, one appointed by each of the three powers. This council will legislate for the Samoans, and will be aided by a small body of representative Samoans. The governor will have the power of veto over all proposed laws. Chief Justice Chambers wished to resign his position and return to the United States, but at the request of the commissioners, has decided to remain.

Many claims have been lodged at the different consulates for damage to property during the past few months. While not empowered to take any action on these claims, the commissioners agreed that real hardship has been suffered, and it is understood that the commission will recommend that the three powers each pay the losses caused to its own subjects.

On the evening of the queen's birthday, British representatives announced that never, under any circumstances, would Great Britain recognize Mataafa's claim to the kingship. It is stated that Baron Stenberg, the German commissioner, is fully convinced that Consul Rose acted wrongfully and is responsible for the late outbreak. Consuls Rose and Maxe are passengers on the steamer Mariposa for San Francisco.

Some of the rebels, dissatisfied with the proclamation providing for a provisional government, have declined to give up their rifles. Mataafa disclaims any responsibility for this action and says it is without his consent.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
RENNES (France), July 1.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Capt. Dreyfus landed at Quiberon and was conveyed by train to Rennes, twelve kilometers from Rennes. There he entered a landau, accompanied by the chief of the detectives and the Prefect of the Department, and was driven to Rennes, where twenty-five gendarmes waited his entrance into the town.

Ten of the gendarmes entered a wagon and followed the carriage. The rest followed on foot. The party arrived at the prison without incident.
A large crowd assembled and wit-

NEWS AT PARIS.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
PARIS, July 1.—The Matin says Capt.
Dreyfus landed from the Sfax at Quiberon and immediately took a special train for Rennes, where he is due at 4 o'clock this morning.

DODGING THE REPORTERS.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
BREIST, July 1.—Up to 4 o'clock this morning no news had been received here of the arrival of Capt. Dreyfus at Rennes. The latest report is that the authorities had arranged a secret landing at the little village of Moulin Blanc, about four miles from Brest, but the vigilance of the newspapersmen led to a change in the arrangements, and Dreyfus was disembarked at Quiberon in Brittany, near L'Orient. There the telegraph office closes at 9 p. m., thus rendering it impossible to telegraph to Rennes the fact of his arrival.

UGLY QUESTIONS POSTPONED.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

PARIS, June 30.—In the Chamber of Deputies today M. Millevoe, Republican-Nationalist, said he desired to in-terpellate M. Millerand, the Minister of Commerce (who is a Socialist in politics), relative to the manner in which he proposed to apply his Socialistic doctrines, but the chamber, by a vote of 337 to 185, supported the minister's request to postpone the question for a month.

BRUSSELS RIOTING CONTINUES.
Many Persons are Injured and Eight Severely Wounded.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
BRUSSELS, June 30.—[By Atlantic
Cable.] Rioting was continued here until 2 a. m., at various points. The gendarmes charged fiercely, several times on the Boulevard Auspach. One rioter was bayoneted, and two reporters were severely injured. Sauce pans and other domestic implements were thrown from the windows during the night at the troops. The Gazette says 100 persons were injured during the rioting and that of this number eight were severely wounded.
At the opening of the Chamber of Deputies today, a motion was introduced amending the rules so as to allow the expulsion of any Deputy causing a disturbance. The Socialists vigorously protested and violently anathematized the movers.

M. de la Nanthoere, Rightist, defended the proposal, and secured a caustic indictment of the Socialists, who interrupted him by whistling, hooting and banging their desks.

SOCIALISTS PARADE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
BRUSSELS, June 30.—About 10 o'clock this evening a great Socialhorted them to march in an orderly manner. No excesses were committed.

CANCELLED CONTRACTS.

Hearing Before Secretary Alger Regarding Rapid-Firing Guns.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, June 30.—There was a hearing today before Secretary Alger and Assistant Secretary McKeljohn to secure the revocation of an order issued by Mr. McKeljohn while he was Acting Secretary of War, cancelling a contract with the Driggs-Seabury Ordnance Company.

The contract in question, which was dated April 15, 1898, was for twenty-six 6-pound and eighty 15-pound rapid-firing guns, mounted, and ammunition.
The order in question also rejected a bid of the same company March 13, 1899, for forty 6-pound and forty-five 15-pound rapid-firing guns. The contract of April 15, 1898, amounted to $700,000, while the bid which was rejected amounted to $200,000. The bid of the American Ordnance Company was $200,000 in excess of the Driggs-Seabury Company.

When Mr. McKeljohn rejected the bid of the Driggs-Seabury company, he ordered new proposals, which are to be opened July 3. Secretary Alger took the matter under advisement.

TOO PURITANICAL.

MAYOR EATON'S OPINION OF GARVANZA PRECINCT.

Had it All Arranged to Allow Liquor-selling at Sycamore Grove. When the Puritans Made a Kick.

Judge Allen Threatened Proceedings to Oust the Chief if the Law Were Violated and the Plan Was Changed.

The Judge Disagreed With the Mayor on a Point of Law and the Mayor Yielded.

In the halcyon days of the reign of Caliph Heroun Al Snyder, Los Angeles was the next thing to a wide-open town. It was wide open on Saturday nights and Sunday mornings for the scum of crib-town and the toughs and heeled of the Eighth Ward, who held wild orgies in Turner Hall and got drunk on liquor sold in open and flagrant violation of law. Whenever the scum of the town wanted to hold a debauch, generally known as a "Bowers ball," they went to the Mayor's office and demanded permission to run a bar without a license. Then the Mayor telephoned to the Chief of Police and instructed him to order his men to permit the Mayor's constituents to sell liquor illegally; get drunk and disturb the peace of the neighborhood to their hearts' content, and the Chief, being subordinate to the Police Commission and a stickler for discipline, obeyed the instructions and meekly sent policemen to Bowers balls to prevent the toughs from carrying their revels to the extent of killing one another with beer glasses.

The Bowers balls enjoyed police protection until the newspapers exposed the scheme and roared the police, when the Chief announced he would be a scape-goat no longer and would refuse to listen to the Mayor's instructions. After that the Mayor took another tack, and instead of ordering the Chief to ignore the law and wink at vice, he pleaded with him now and then to let the orgy go on "just this once." Sometimes the Chief was obdurate, and sometimes he wasn't.
Then came a change of administration and a spasm of reform. The new Mayor frowned upon the illegal wide-openers of the saloons, and his aversion to all forms of vice was so intense that he couldn't endure the existence of back rooms in saloons. A new and complicated liquor ordinance was devised, passed, amended, tinkered and tangled, and it was decreed for the promotion of sobriety that a man who had a Sunday or early-morning thirst should quench it with nothing less than a pint of liquor. Saloon-keepers and restaurant-keepers were warned impressively against any infraction of the letter of the law, and those who failed to heed the warning lost their licenses.
All this created the erroneous impression that the successor of Wide-open Snyder was a stern and fastidious prohibitionist, and the dealers in liquor said mean things about him, even going so far as to call him a "long hair."
But it is all a mistake. The Mayor is not an extremist in his reform theories. In fact, he thinks some of the people of Los Angeles who demand strict enforcement of the laws are "puritans" and "over-fastidious," and he is inclined to be liberal in his interpretation of the license laws.
About three weeks ago the license of Sycamore Park was revoked because the proprietor and bartender had been convicted in court of violating the law by selling whiskey on Sunday. Sycamore Park is a picnic ground. Decent, quiet people go there sometimes, but the other sort go there oftener and disturb the peace of the neighborhood. A few days ago, some people who propose to hold picnics next week at Sycamore Park, went to the Mayor and asked him if it would be all right to have beer and liquor for sale with luncheons at the park. The Mayor could see no harm in that. Of course, it would be an evasion, if not a vio-

A SMALL SPOT MAY BE CANCER.

MOST VIOLENT CASES HAVE APPEARED AT FIRST AS MERE PIMPLES.
The greatest care should be given to any little sore, pimple or scratch which shows no disposition to heal under ordinary treatment. No one can tell how soon these will develop into Cancer of the worst type. So many people die from Cancer simply because they do not know just what the morbid cause they naturally turn themselves over to the doctors, and are forced to submit to a cruel and dangerous operation—the only treatment which the doctors know for Cancer. The disease promptly returns, however, and is even more violent and destructive than before. Cancer is a deadly poison in the blood, and an operation, plaster, or other external treatment can have no effect whatever upon it. The cure must come from within—the last vestige of poison must be eradicated.

Mr. Wm. Walpole, of Walsworth, S. D., says: "A little blotch about the size of a pea on my left eye, gradually growing larger, from which shooting pains at intervals ran in all directions. I became greatly alarmed and consulted a good doctor, who pronounced it Cancer, and advised that it be cut out, but this I could not consent to. I read in my local paper of a cure effected by S. S. S., and decided to try it. It acted like a charm, the Cancer becoming at first irritated, and then disappearing very freely. This gradually grew less and then disappeared altogether, leaving a small scar which soon dropped off, and now only a healthy little scar remains where what threatened to destroy my life once held full sway." Positively the only cure for Cancer is Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—because it is the only remedy which can go deep enough to reach the root of the disease and force it out of the system permanently. A surgical operation does not reach the blood—the real seat of the disease—because the blood can't be cut out. S. S. S.; nothing can take its place. S. S. S. cures all cases of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Ulcers, Sores, or any other form of blood disease. Valuable books on Cancer and Blood Diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Remorse of a Guilty Stomach

Henry McLellan, of Hamilton, Ill., is a veteran of the 16th Illinois Infantry. He said:
"For more than fifteen years I was a sufferer from gastritis in its worst form. I was much reduced in flesh and strength and unable to attend to business. Finally my wife persuaded me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and to my surprise I began to get better. Three boxes effected a cure that has been permanent. When I began to take the pills I weighed 136 pounds; now I weigh 163. These pills did me more good than all the other medicines I have ever taken."
H. K. McLELLAN.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this second day of December, 1897.
R. R. WALLACE,
Notary Public.
—From the Press, Hamilton, Ill.

ation of the law, but he was not side-bound and he thought the people attending the picnic should be permitted to drink liquor with their meals. The fact that Sycamore Park's restaurant license was revoked complicated the case some, but it could be arranged.
So the Mayor went to the long-unsuspected Snyderian telephone and called up the Chief. It was like old times in the Chief's office when the bell rang. The Mayor explained the case, and the Chief said: "But they can't run a bar, you know." Oh, no, there would be no bar; only a long table where people could sit down and eat and drink. The Chief was not quite sure that it would be strictly proper, but being amenable to discipline and subordinate to the head of the Police Commission, he was not too strenuous, and the matter was arranged satisfactorily upon a non-puritanical basis.
Then the residents of Garvanza precinct and the vicinity of Sycamore Grove took a hand in the matter. They learned that large consignments of liquor were being received at the restaurant, and they inferred that the suspended orgies were about to be renewed. They held a mass meeting and emitted a loud roar.
On Thursday, M. T. Allen, of the Superior Court, who resides near Sycamore Grove, and has been annoyed beyond measure, as have others there, by the nuisance, called upon Mayor Eaton and asked that official to use his power to see that the law is enforced. Judge Allen was seen yesterday, and made the following statement with reference to the matter:
"I told Mayor Eaton that if he, the Mayor, and the Police Commission, authorized any man or club of men to operate a saloon at Sycamore Grove without a license, we would give notice to the Chief of Police of the threatened violation of the law, and that if he and his officers, knowing of such violation, did not stop it, we, the people of Highland Park, would take steps in the Superior Court to remove the Chief of Police and the officers so refusing to do their duty, under section 772 of the Penal Code."
I did not say nor intimate, nor intend to intimate, that I intended to sit in such a cause, for, as one of the citizens interested in the prosecution of this matter, I would be disqualified. As a matter of fact, my intention was to file the affidavit myself."

Judge Allen said that when he asked the Mayor to have the law enforced at Sycamore Grove, his Honor informed him that he thought the citizens of Highland Park were over-fastidious and too puritanical in their views; that the city was too large and live to permit of holding people down to family, or words to that effect. The Mayor told the Judge also, he said, that the Catholic Benevolent Association, the French Benevolent Society and kindred organizations claimed the right to sell liquor when they saw fit, by reason of their being incorporated under the State laws. Then Judge Allen said, he disputed, and thereupon the subject was dropped. Later, in the course of their conversation, Mayor Eaton informed Judge Allen that he would notify the representatives of the above-mentioned societies that no liquor would be permitted to be sold at Sycamore Grove.
Judge Allen states that the people are perfectly willing that orderly picnics should be held at Sycamore Grove, but will not permit violations of the law any longer. They propose to prosecute persons who undertake to sell liquor there, having already raised funds with which to do so. Responsible agents will be employed to watch proceedings at the grove.
The French society will hold its picnic outside the city limits, where the neighbors are not puritanical, and wine may be sold. The Mayor said, he said, the Chief again and instructed him to enforce the law at Sycamore Grove, even to the puritanical extreme.

A DANGEROUS DOG.

W. F. Wilson Arrested for Keeping a Violent Animal.
William F. Wilson was arrested by Officer Shand yesterday on complaint of W. C. Hogaboom, for keeping a vicious dog, which is allowed to roam at large at the peril of injury to human beings. Wilson's dog bit one of Hogaboom's children some weeks ago. Hogaboom has a reputation as a humorist, but he could see nothing funny in having his offspring chewed up by his neighbor's dog. The little boy endured much suffering on account of the dog bite, and the father of the child had to pay a big doctor bill. When the dog was not at home, Wilson was remonstrated with him to keep the animal penned up, but the dangerous canine was soon again at large. A few days ago the dog once more invaded the Hogaboom premises and was captured and imprisoned in the cellar by Mrs. Hogaboom, who sent for her husband, and appealed to him to exterminate the cur. Hogaboom is a law-abiding citizen and hesitates to take the law into his own hands. Therefore he sought counsel with the District Attorney, instead of shooting the dog without judicial condemnation. Wilson is alleged to have threatened to kill Hogaboom if he killed the dog, but that is not the reason why the funny man of the Associated Press refrained from killing the vicious brute. Hogaboom resolved to let the law take its course. Consequently a warrant for the arrest of the owner of the dog was issued and served by Officer Shand yesterday. When Wilson was arraigned before Justice Morgan he pleaded not guilty and had his trial set for July 3 at 9:30 o'clock.

Cruel Treatment of a Horse.
Robert C. Smith, a young man who drives an oil wagon, was arrested yesterday morning for cruelly beating a horse. One of the four animals which Smith was driving along Market street, where Officer George overtook him, and placed him under arrest. Smith pleaded not guilty when arraigned in the Police Court, but the testimony of Hugh W. Vail and several other witnesses fully corroborated the charge. Smith is to appear at 1:30 o'clock today for sentence.

Sunset Club Meeting.
The regular monthly meeting of the Sunset Club was held last evening at the Maikson Road. The paper of the evening was read by Enoch Knight, Esq., on "The Genesis and the Genesis of Our Territorial Growth," in which he gave an interesting review of the gradual upbuilding of the territory now included within the limits of the United States. The paper was followed by a general discussion.

THE OBJECT OF THE SUGAR TRUST.

The thanks of American beet-sugar growers, and of the American public in general, are due to Henry T. Oxnard, for the able and convincing manner in which he has shown the fallacy of the arguments put forth by H. O. Havemeyer of the sugar trust, in his testimony before the Industrial Commission, when he tried to divert attention from the trusts to the protection tariff, by charging the tariff with being responsible for the trusts. Mr. Oxnard, in a statement published over his signature, shows that the argument of Mr. Havemeyer is specious and misleading.

Mr. Havemeyer claimed that the American Sugar Refining Company receives only 3 1/2 per cent. of protection. This Mr. Oxnard shows to be incorrect. The error in Mr. Havemeyer's argument is that he arrives at the protection to sugar refining based on the value of refined sugar. In other words, basing the value of 3 cents per pound, and receiving a protection of only 1 1/2 cents, Mr. Havemeyer would be right in saying that he receives only a protection of approximately 4 per cent; but Mr. Havemeyer does not produce the sugar, and his only interest is in the cost of making raw sugar white, or, in other words, refining raw brown sugar, so his protection must be based on what the cost is of refining instead of the value of the sugar, which brings his protection from 4 per cent. up to 40 or 50 per cent. The protection granted the sugar producers who make the article of sugar itself is 50 per cent. on the cost of raw sugars today, or identical with the protection granted the sugar refining companies.

It is evident that if the selfish suggestion of Mr. Havemeyer should be adopted, it would result in wiping out entirely the American home-sugar industry, which has made such promising progress during the past few years, and would enable Mr. Havemeyer's company to continue refining raw sugar.

Mr. Oxnard then goes on to discuss the reason which induced Mr. Havemeyer to make his attack on the tariff. Mr. Oxnard shows that, in the first place, the sugar trust can plainly see that the steadily-increasing product of beet sugar in the United States will inevitably result in producing the sugar consumed by the people of this country in a thousand factories, scattered all over the Union, and that this would render useless the refineries on the coast. These factories will employ a hundred men where one is employed today by the sugar trust, and give the farmers the benefit of a protective tariff on a new and profitable crop which is a desirable end to be obtained for the agricultural classes, who are not usually so directly benefited by tariff protection.

Mr. Havemeyer suggests that sugar be admitted free from Cuba, knowing well that this course would prevent the development of the beet-sugar industry in the United States.

Another reason for Mr. Havemeyer's attack on the tariff in general is doubtless, as Mr. Oxnard says, a desire to direct the attention of the public away from trusts, and have it centered on the tariff. There is, however, little chance that he will succeed in this effort. As Mr. Oxnard shows, there is no trust among the sugar producers of this country, and there never can be for the simple reason that the beet-sugar industry can be started in almost any State in the Union. It is this that the sugar trust fears—hence these tears.

The American people are by this time thoroughly aroused to the great and growing importance of the American beet-sugar industry, through which we may soon hope to retain at home the $100,000,000 which is now sent abroad every year for sugar. There is little reason to fear that the

A GIANTIC IRRIGATION SCHEME.

Whatever may be thought in regard to some of the details of British rule in the Orient, there can be no question that the lot of those Asiatics who live under the British flag is immeasurably superior to what it was for centuries previous, when they were the constant prey of ruthless invaders. In no direction has the beneficence of English rule been more clearly shown than in the construction of great canals and storage reservoirs in India by which means millions of lives have been saved during the past decade.

A work of this kind is about to be undertaken by the British in Egypt which will throw in the shade all similar achievements heretofore undertaken. This enterprise is of special interest to the United States just now when we are beginning to seriously discuss the question of Federal irrigation for the great arid regions of the West. The enterprise referred to was recently inaugurated by the Duke of Connaught, who laid the foundation of an immense dam across the Nile, the object of which is to hold back the waters of the river, and so create a vast artificial lake, for the purpose of irrigation. This work rivals in magnitude those great achievements of antiquity, the pyramids, near which it is located. How much it is expected to accomplish may be seen from the statement that at present nine-tenths of the Nile and its priceless sediment are poured into the Mediterranean.

The plan includes the construction of a huge wall of granite, a mile and a quarter in length, which is in places seventy-six feet high and thirty or forty feet wide. This will be the largest dam in the world. It will force back the waters of the Nile until there is formed a reservoir some 670 square miles in area, which it is estimated will contain 1,000,000,000 tons of water. By means of this vast lake of Nile water, it is computed that not less than 2500 square miles of desert land will be rescued from arid waste.

The British have been very liberal with Egypt in the terms of payment for this great improvement. Egypt is not to pay a cent until the dam and canals are completed, when she will pay $83,330 per year for thirty years, a total obligation of $25,000,000 for an improvement that is estimated to be worth at least $400,000,000.

The Nile is to Egypt what the life blood is to the human body. It is said that if a single season passes in which a tract of land fails to receive its annual inundation from the Nile, it takes three years of flood to make up for the omission.

In addition to providing an enormous amount of water for irrigation, and a solid bridge over the river, it is proposed to utilize the fall from the head of the dam to develop a powerful source of electrical energy. This great irrigation project will, doubtless, be followed by others of a similar kind, not only in Northeast Africa, but in South Africa also, and in Australia, where disastrous droughts frequently cause enormous losses, while at the same time, during the flood season, a vast amount of water goes to waste in the ocean. If the British government can afford to undertake such work as this for the benefit of its half-civilized colonists, surely this great republic should not be afraid to undertake similar work, in order to provide homes for millions of its land-hungry citizens, and at the same time protect a large amount of thickly-settled territory along the great water courses from damaging floods.

UTILIZE THIS RAW MATERIAL.

Suggestion has been made, and wisely, too, that the fighting Howards and Bakers of Kentucky should be enlisted for service in the Philippines, where they could have all the blood-letting they want, do some service to their country, and relieve the Blue Grass State from considerable embarrassment, all at once. According to Henry Watterson these people are "a wild and densely ignorant lot, living in inaccessible portions of the mountains, miles away from the civilizing effects of a railroad. They were bushwhackers during the civil war—sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, anything to be fighting. And they will continue to fight until the humanizing influence of education has reclaimed them from their savage ways." If this be true, and Mr. Watterson's word is generally considered good, there is a large amount of first-class raw material being wasted in the mountains of Kentucky. We therefore suggest that the Governor of that State be at once authorized to volunteer, or, if necessary, conscript all the Howards and Bakers who are engaged in the current Kentucky vendetta, and that, in separate commands, they be sent to Luzon and turned loose in the brush, where there is plenty of good shooting all along the line. Should the Philippines clean-out the Howards and Bakers, or the Bakers and Howards clean-out the Philippines, an equally great service will be done to the cause of civilization. Let us have regiments of First and Second Kentucky Howard and Baker Volunteers right away quick, putting the two families in different regiments, send them to Manila and then let nature take its course.

FORWARD!

The "anti-expansionists" are making the nation's task more difficult in the Philippines; they are causing the death of our brave soldiers; they are making America appear contemptible in the eyes of the world, but the work in hand will be carried on bravely and with resolution, despite the foes in front, with guns in their hands, and those in the rear who push the gun that drips treason. This government has never at any time been in position to abandon the Philippines to Tagal warriors and slaughter, even had it the inclination to do so, and it has never had any such inclination. The victory won by heroic Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay made it compulsory upon us to stand fast and protect the non-combatants in those islands of the Far East, and the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain made the Philippine Archipelago as much a part of the United States possessions as is Massachusetts or California, and we are bound by the same duty to preserve the peace in those islands, if we have to fight for it, as we are to keep order in the streets of Washington, D. C., or Los Angeles. The world is going forward, not backward, and in that forward movement the United States will not shrink at the bank of any stream, no matter how swift the current, nor at the edge of any jungle, no matter how thickly that jungle may swarm with Tagal savages with spears in their hands. It is heart-breaking to see the labor of our brave troops at the front made doubly dangerous and difficult by the behavior of their copperhead countrymen in the rear, but those troops will go on obeying orders, fighting, following the flag and doing their every duty, while the anathema of all good and patriotic Americans will fall upon the conscienceless traitors who are stabbing our soldiers in the back. The bugles still sound "Forward!"

Under no circumstances should this latest hogwash grab of the Southern Pacific Company of Kentucky be permitted, and if our Board of Supervisors does its duty it will not be permitted.

A statement which goes to show the importance of Federal irrigation of the arid lands, not only as a means of making homes for millions of people, but to save a vast amount of money now expended in protecting southern lands from overflow, is published in the New York Tribune, which quotes a United States engineer, who is a member of the Mississippi River Commission, as saying that it costs about $30 a lineal foot to keep the Mississippi River within its bank, between Cairo and the Gulf. When we have a complete system of Federal irrigation, the surplus water will be taken care of and utilized, so that the storage reservoirs will serve a double purpose.

HIGH SCHOOL HOLDS NOVEL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Instead of a Programme of Student Orations and Poems, Prof. C. A. Dunlaway of Stanford De-livers an Address.

The Influence of "Personal and Civic Ideals" Upon History Illustrated by Reference to Washington, Lincoln and Bryan.

Principal Housh Makes a Plea for a New High School and Declares Health Endangered by the Present Crowding.

The High School broke away from convention last night and held a commencement without a single graduating essay, poem, or oration. Instead of the usual programme of student speakers, Prof. C. A. Dunlaway of the chair of history of Leland Stanford, Jr. University, lectured on "Personal and Civic Ideals." President Charles Lincoln, Dean, Annis Van Nys, Lincoln, George, Clinton Kelly, Arthur Charles Wright, John Dunlap Bowler, Genevieve Knoll, Marion King Snow.

It is "personal ideals," he said, "that reach into the lives of men and life and ennoble them. When the eager and interesting young graduates of college, he is full of ideals, and things he most desires is to get an intelligent direction for these ideals. He knows that knowledge is power. He knows that for a man to try to accomplish things simply by the force of his enthusiasm and without training is like trying to lift himself by his bootstraps."

"The question of personal ideals has special significance in a nation that is a democracy. Democracy will justify itself by the product of the people. If the people, in governing themselves, make bigger mistakes than would be made if someone did the governing for them, at least they learn something. If the process results in a better development of the personal ideals of the individual, it is worth while to pay the price. The individual responsibility of each American citizen, whether man or woman, is the end and aim of American government. The personal ideal of its citizens will be realized in the character of the government."

The speaker discussed the personality of George Washington and of Abraham Lincoln, and showed how in each instance the man's own conception of what he owed to himself and of what was righteous and manly, directed itself out in the deeds which made his name glorious in American annals.

Andrew Johnson, a good politician, and in his own estimation an honest man, failed where Lincoln would have succeeded, simply because he did not dare to have high ideals. Bryan was injured as a man who had high personal ideals and tried to realize them regardless of consequences.

"Today," said Prof. Dunlaway, "although defeated, he is revered and honored by millions. I happen to think him wrong. But he had an ideal for the people which he tried to realize. He was a leader of his party, and though beaten he is respected. The personal element determines a man's worth in his own self-respect and also the value of his services to the community."

The speaker described Col. Roosevelt as the idol of millions of young Americans, and declared that the secret of his personality is that he has always working, whether the work be hunting big game, writing books, fighting the good fight in politics, or leading his soldiers on the field of battle.

"He is strong, simple, sincere, and always a gentleman," said Prof. Dunlaway. "These personal qualities will render to State and city just the service which State and city need, those services which make a city worth while, and a nation a great people on the earth."

Principal Housh delivered a short speech advocating the voting of the bonds for a new High School. It was received with round applause and approval. He discussed the present crowded condition of the High School, stowed away in a building planned for his present number of pupils.

"We have used all available space," he said, "from basement to attic. We have built sheds in the yard. We have invaded the sand-draw, and daily 200 of our pupils go back and forth to their studies over the graves of the departed. It is not on the ground of discomfort that we say a new high school is imperatively needed, but on the ground of health and efficiency. The high city of Los Angeles has no right to endanger the health of its children by herding them together in poorly-ventilated, crowded rooms; in damp, chilly basements, and in sheds where they suffer from heat and bad air. Not long ago the citizens of Los Angeles voted adversely on school bonds. Now they have a Board of Education whom they can trust implicitly, with public funds. The Board of Education has asked you to give us a High School building ample for library, recitation rooms, laboratories and gymnasium. Give it to us and we will give you in return young men and women physically, mentally and morally strong who will uplift and uphold the good name of Los Angeles."

Mr. Housh spoke briefly of the national educational exhibit to be held in the Spring-street school, and invited the public to inspect the displays from all over the country to be shown there. He then presented the class to President Davis for graduation.

President Davis spoke of the development of education, and of its modern, practical developments, aimed to fit boys and girls for making a place for themselves in a business and in handicrafts. He discussed the manual training work already established in the city and referred to the plan the board is now maturing for instruction in cooking and sewing.

The diplomas, tied with ribbons of the colors of the two divisions of the present graduating class, winter and summer, were then distributed by President Davis, Principal Housh, Mrs. Margaret J. Frick, and Miss Florence A. Dunham.

The exercises ended with the distribution of flowers to the graduates. The class remained in its place upon the stage while the flowers were handed out by the members of the junior A class.

The graduating class included the following named students: Herbert Lee Cox, Louis Henry Dyke, Maude Mayme Fellows; summer, '99, Clarence James Shultz, William Yarnall, James McArthur, George Clinton Kelly, Arthur Charles Wright, John Dunlap Bowler, Genevieve Knoll, Marion King Snow.

SAN ROQUE PLACERS.

Late Arrivals from the Mines are Not Enthusiastic.

A. G. Patton, a civil engineer, and Fred Creighton are among the latest arrivals from the San Roque Placers. They made the tough investigation of the field while there, and are not enthusiastic over the result. Mr. Patton, while not inclined to talk for publication, said yesterday: "It is no place for an American without money. A color of gold can be dredged from the bottom of the mine, but the lack of water and facilities for mining makes the work too expensive to be profitable, except in rare instances. It is a place where a man would be kept away unless well supplied with capital and experience in working deep mines."

LECTURES IN INDIA.

Dr. John Cuthbert Wall Appointed to Haskell Lectureship.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]

CHICAGO, June 30.—Dr. John Cuthbert Wall, president of the Union Theological Seminary of New York City, has been appointed to the Haskell lectureship in comparative religion in the University of Chicago. The position, which is one of the highest in the gift of the local institution, requires that all lectures shall be given in India. Dr. Wall will be called upon to deliver a course of lectures on Christianity throughout the principal cities of India.

The position was held by Dr. John Barry Barrow, who was the first American to go to India on such a mission. His successor, Dr. Fairbank of Scotland, has just completed a tour of the East. Dr. Wall, who has signed his acceptance of the position, will prepare to make the trip within the next two years.

JUBILEE A SUCCESS.

Attendance at the Saengerbund Surpasses the Expectations.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CINCINNATI, June 30.—The golden jubilee of the North American Saengerbund is now certainly an assured success. The attendance during the past two days surpassed expectations in the musical line. The local executive board is no longer issuing routine bulletins, that the big Saengerfest Hall would be positively completed on time, and evening bulletins explaining why the hall was "not ready on time."

The programmes are all coming twenty-four hours later than originally announced. The great Volksfest will be held at the Zoo Gardens all day Sunday and Sunday night, instead of Saturday, as originally announced. Europeans Menaced by Chinese.

PEKING, June 30.—The French Consul at Meng Tsu, province of Yun Nan, where anti-foreign disturbances recently occurred, reports that the situation is unchanged. Thirty-eight well-armed Europeans took refuge in the residence of the Consul after the siege of the consulate, which is now guarded by troops.

ALREADY A RUCTION.

Warden Aguirre at Loggerheads With the Prison Directors.

[San Francisco Call.] From the common talk indulged in by politicians, it would seem that Martin G. Aguirre, the new warden of San Quentin Prison, intends trying to have things all his own way as regards the matter of appointment and conduct of the prison generally. If what is said by several who are in a position to know whereof they speak is to be relied upon, Aguirre has already clashed with the Board of State Prison Directors and will not formally take his seat as warden until July 1. The inception of the trouble between the board and the new warden will, it is said, be due wholly to an attempt on the part of Aguirre, acting as the agent of Dan Burns, to place ex-Supervisor Ed Smith in the position of commissary at the prison. This was the original intention, but when Aguirre made known his desire to make Smith commissary, he met with decided opposition. The directors voiced their unanimous sentiment that for various reasons Smith was unfit for the office and should never receive their endorsement.

Finding that argument and other devices were unable to gain his end, Aguirre finally declared that he would appoint Smith whether the board liked it or not. But when he thus laid down his hand in perfect confidence Aguirre found that he had been deceived. He was not politician enough to cope with the veteran board and was soon made to realize it. Without a moment's hesitation he was informed that as warden he had a right to appoint whom he pleased, but that the board controlled the salary of the position, and if Smith was appointed would reduce it to $25 a month. Staggered at this reply, Aguirre came to this and held a consultation with his political masters, the result of which was that it was finally admitted the board held the whip hand and must be respected. So Smith was not appointed.

But Aguirre felt so angry and chagrined over his defeat that he immediately laid plans to be revenged. He did not have to wait long, for a short time afterward the board requested Aguirre to retain Capt. J. F. Birlem as captain of the guard, and endorsed him as perhaps the most efficient officer at San Quentin. Aguirre sweetly acquiesced, but winked the other eye, at the same time leading the board to believe that Thomas Wilkinson should remain as commissary. It is stated that the directors felt so positive of the retention of these two men that President Fitzgerald sent Wilkinson a telegram no later than last Tuesday telling him to be at his ease—everything had been fixed nicely.

On the same day Aguirre introduced ex-Chief of Police Russell of San Diego to Birlem as his successor and notified Wilkinson that on the first of the month Thomas Foley, the father of Gage's private secretary, would be made commissary, and that it was his pleasant work, the warden says, Deputy Sheriff McClure of Los Angeles was appointed turnkey to succeed J. C. Jameson and Deputy Sheriff McClure of the same place front gatekeeper to succeed Fred Woods. Captain of the Yard Edgar, generally admitted to be the most unpopular of officers, was retained for the same reason, it is believed that even for the purpose of revenge Aguirre cannot afford to keep Edgar long.

The feeling is represented to be so keen that the board will not let a long time elapse before it will endeavor to make the warden realize that it is a large factor in prison affairs and must be respected.

MOVIN' INTO TOWN.

I ain't got any home now, since the folks moved into the city. They've boxed up all the memories an' moved 'em into town. The old house stands there just the same, but oh, it seems a pity to think the days are all forgot when I reamed up an' down the dear old tree for hours—just a joy among the flowers—A chain of the butterfies an' bees a-buzzin' 'round."

There's a sweet face at the window, but it ain't mine. But my mother watches me an' says: "An' ain't for her tired boy, to clasp him to her breast; An' at the old melody the music that I'm catchin'."

It ain't my sister singin', an' my sister singin' ain't her. The wheathills are a-boddin' 'An' waitin' for the ploddin' feet of my old man, but he's gone away to rest. I wonder if the moonlit nights are quite as full of glory; I wonder if the garden brook is quite as full of joy; I wonder if the meadowlark still sings the same old song; It seems to my enraptured bosom when I was a boy.

To the goldenrod an' aster Standin' 'tween the pines, To catch a sight of my straw hat an' patched-up corduroy? I'd like to go to school agin an' play at "and-over," Or swing my feet on summer days an' dream, an' nod, an' nod, an' dream. I'd like to go a-swimmin' in the creek all under cover, Of the willow trees a-bendin' an' a-swashin' in the stream— But this weary home-land mortal; To this weary home-land mortal; An' the only glimpse my eyes can see is a far-off, fading glory. —[Chicago Record.]

It is reliable, always ready to be started, and in using it you have only to pay for what you actually use. Why don't you look up?

ALL ALONG THE LINE.
Silkwood sets the pace for all things done in Santa Ana, i.e., fast, furious and winning. Now the local Chamber of Commerce there has issued 10,000 pamphlets for distribution among visitors, and has made visiting easy and possible by arranging for stop-over privileges for all who care so to do. Orange county is up in the band wagon.

Here's to the street sweeping outfit! During the stay of the brainy people who will attend the National Educational Association, no one feature of municipal wisdom will be more certainly appeal to their sense of fitness than the work of the men who, daily and hourly, clean the downtown districts. The man behind the broom is a street decoration to be proud of.

Digging wells and solemnizing marriages keep the Redlands people busy. These are proofs of undeniable pluck, and prove the scriptural position of the people, in that they are doing their level best to "multiply, and replenish the earth." May the paths of her benedictors be as frostless as her citrus are known to be, and their fruitage of noble descendants proportionately great.

The Duarte-Monrovia Fruit Exchange declared a dividend of $28,000 to its members yesterday. This for navel oranges only. This fact and the increased supply of water, together with the fact that all ditches and conduits are to be made of cement, indicate future prosperity in a greater degree than present success, and will be a powerful argument for attracting investors. Southern California optimism finds excellent exponents in the business men of Monrovia and Duarte.

The Times correspondence says: "The mountain fire near Fredalpa Park in San Bernardino county has been extinguished, with about one hundred acres burned, which resulted without damage of consequence." This is a warning note to the men to whom it is intimated that the greater fires in the mountain districts. An abundance of fire in the mountains means a scarcity of water in the towns, and this should make all parties very careful of campfires and matches while in the cañons.

The Times paid a deserved compliment to the gentlemen of the Tuna Fishing Club of Avalon for the noble effort to distribute the tons of fish caught by them and, heretofore, wasted. It now transpires that the Associated Charities through which source it was sought to do this work, have no funds to use in distributing the fish. Los Angeles never lacked a generous heart for a loving deed, and it is fervently hoped that some good heart and competent person will compass this need, while these good men are in the mood. See the Associated Charities. See, also, Matthew xxv, 31-40.

The Times Pasadena correspondent writes: "Plans are being made for a Fourth of July celebration at North Pasadena. A picnic in the Arroyo is talked of. There is much enthusiasm over the proposition. G. Wellikens and also G. Scott's Celebrations to the north of them, and to the south of them, and the only move so far made to attract the visitors or stir the patriotism of the people is an old-fashioned camp meeting. Well, there is consolation in the fact that Melick can change his recent pose at the depot, also his hair and necktie, and thus paralyze the next trainload of teachers that passes. If you don't fish you can out bait anyhow.

COLAN CLEARED HIMSELF.

Charge of Burglary Against the Gypsy not Proven.
Thomas Colan, a young man of Gypsy blood, who was arrested by Detectives Steele and Flammer several days ago on the charge of burglary, was discharged at his preliminary examination yesterday by Justice Morgan. The detectives tried to show that Colan entered the room of F. J. Kinsey at No. 402 Aliso street June 18, and stole therefrom some jewelry and other articles of trifling value. The only evidence adduced at the examination to connect Colan with the crime was the fact that he had been seen in the neighborhood of Kinsey's room on the day of the burglary, and that he subsequently sold a breastpin to a real Alabama "hook" which Kinsey positively identified as his property. Colan at first denied, but subsequently admitted, that he sold the pin to the negro, but he told the officers that he got the ornament from a Mexican known to him only by the name of Jimmy. The detectives searched in vain for the mysterious Jimmy and came to the conclusion that it was by means of a burglar's flimsy that Colan got the trinket. The court, after a long and fair hearing, decided that the evidence was not sufficient to convict, so the prisoner was discharged. It is not out of place to state that Colan conducted his own defense with ability that would do credit to a veteran member of the bar.

FIRE BALLOONS TABOOED.

Disastrous Conflagration Almost Started by One of Them.
The dangerous fire balloon has made its annual advent a few days in advance of the glorious Fourth. George L. Stearns, president of the Stearns Manufacturing Company, yesterday reported to the police that one of these balloons, which was sent up Thursday evening, fell among a pile of rubbish alongside the company's furniture factory on North Main street, and would have burned down the works but for the presence of one of the employees, who extinguished the flames before they got beyond control. Mr. Stearns suggested that the police take some action looking toward the suppression of the balloon-burning nuisance. Capt. Roberts accordingly issued an order to all patrolmen instructing them to prevent wherever practical, the sending up of fire balloons. The fireworks vendors may not like the order, but it is strictly in line with the demands of public safety.

STRICTLY BUSINESS.

Markins Did not Disturb the Peace in Simpson's Dive.
William Markins, the last of the batch of sixty-seven persons captured in Simpson and Brown's tough Los Angeles-street joint last Sunday morning, appeared before Justice Morgan yesterday for trial on the charge of disturbing the peace. Markins is a respectable-looking negro. He pleaded not guilty and set up the defense that his presence in the negro dive was for the purpose of collecting money due him. He declared that he did not participate in the orgie or approve of it in the least. His attendance was for purely business reasons. There was no evidence to show that Markins was not telling the truth, so the court acquitted him. The case of Simpson and Brown, charged with keeping a disorderly house, is now the only one that remains undisposed of in connection with the unsavory affair.

CARRIER'S PROTEST UNHEEDED.

George Carrier swears by all that's good and holy that he never laid a hand on M. D. Day and that he never handed a hair on the head of the said Day in any manner. Carrier had two witnesses who testified under oath that Carrier did not do bodily harm to Day, but the latter and one other witness swore that Carrier did use force and violence on the person of the aforesaid Day, and Justice Morgan found Carrier guilty of battery, notwithstanding the preponderance of evidence in his favor. Carrier is a manure hauler. While hauling two heavy loads of manure from a livery stable, he found his way blocked by an empty wagon belonging to Day. He requested the latter to move his vehicle out of the way. Day refused to comply with the request. Carrier then undertook to clear away the obstacle himself. Day resented the interference with his team. Hot words and a scuffle ensued, in which Day alleges he was struck by Carrier. The latter was fined $5 by the court, which he paid protestingly.

DANGEROUS TOY PISTOL.

Arthur Melton, a red-headed boy who shot Aloise Reithmuller in the face with a toy pistol, was found guilty of battery yesterday by Justice Morgan. Young Melton admitted that he did the shooting. He knew the pistol was loaded, but he denied that he shot his playmate intentionally. Mrs. Melton, who appears to be a refined and educated lady, made a plea for her son. Justice Morgan took the case under consideration until July 6, when young Melton is to appear for sentence.

CHAPIN-TIBBOTT COMMERCIAL CO., 135 South Spring Street, Through to 211 West Second Street.

stated very frankly that the citizens of the harbor town, in the matter of a ferry franchise, were fighting no one at any time, but everyone all the time. Mr. Savage thought that the protest which the Chamber of Commerce had presented would speak for itself and that it clearly pointed out the inadvisability of granting any privileges at this time.

Following Judge Savage came Judge A. M. Stephens, who represented the city of San Pedro in the controversy. After stating emphatically that he would have nothing to say as to the legal aspect of the question, he spoke as follows:

"Whatever else may be said about the proposed ferry, there is at this time no popular demand for it; in fact the demand is against it, as the numerous protests filed with the board go to show. This is not a case of emergency; there are no reasons why such a ferry should be constructed at once, for there is no need of it. The only purpose of the public to be accommodated are the passengers of the Southern Pacific. The granting of this ferry is not urgent. Let the Southern Pacific put its ferry on without charge, until such time as the government lines relative to one of the finest harbors in the world shall have been definitely established, but at least let all fare alike."

"But can we refuse to grant a privilege to an applicant, when such a privilege can be granted under the statutes? Interrupted Chairman Davis. Judge Stephens thought that circumstances—such as those in the present case—might arise, making a refusal a clearly defined duty on the part of the board to the public. "The only question," he said, "is, does it inflict harm on anybody or any part of the people?"

"In your opinion, Judge Stephens," asked Deputy District Attorney Wilbur, "would it be an evasion of the law to allow the Southern Pacific to ply a free ferry across the bay, and sell tickets to Terminal Island?"

Judge Stephens thought not, if the same fare were charged to Terminal Island as to San Pedro.

At this point T. E. Gibbon, attorney for the Terminal Railway Company, introduced some documentary evidence against the ownership of the Catalina Yacht Club, which now lies in E. P. Foster, who is in the far east at the present time. Mr. Gibbon also a statement from the Title, Insurance and Trust Company, which gives the status of the land in question down to its present ownership by Mr. Foster, also a certified copy of a deed on record given by the Los Angeles Terminal Land Company to the Catalina Yacht Club, in which it was particularly covenanted that the lot should never be used in the sale of wines or liquors, nor in the conduct of any other business than that of a hotel, restaurant or bath-house; and finally the same sort of a deed, containing the same covenant, given by the Catalina Yacht Club to E. P. Foster.

"Such," said Mr. Gibbon, "is the status of the lot as appears from the records, and that is the only standing that can be recognized by law."

"There is a further status," said Mr. Gibbon. "The owner consents to the usage of the property."

"Where do you get that?" demanded Mr. Gibbon.

"You just showed that Mr. Foster owns it."

"I have proved it."

"Well, Mr. Foster consents," put in Mr. Dunn.

Mr. Gibbon objected with some heat to Dunn representing his client in such a matter as that.

"I ask this board," he said, "if an attorney should be allowed to give consent for an absent client in a matter affecting the usage and title of property?"

"Well, we will argue that," said Mr. Gibbon, before the board had a chance to deliver an opinion.

Mr. Gibbon of the Southern Pacific opened the arguments. He said: "This application of Mr. Muir is simply for a twenty-three months' special privilege to run a ferry from East San Pedro to Terminal Island. The opposition that has developed is not worth the honest consideration of the board. The Supervisors are elected to conserve and foster public benefits. The people of Los Angeles, Wilmington and Terminal Island will be greatly benefited. It has been assumed all along that it is the Southern Pacific that has presented this application. Assuming that it is, the Southern Pacific has the same rights as any other citizen or corporation. But as a matter of fact, Mr. Muir makes this application personally. Whether he should hold the privilege if it were granted to him or assign it, is immaterial to this board."

"What does the opposition amount to? After the legally required four weeks' notice, three protests were presented, all signed by the same man, and at the eleventh hour in floats the feeble voice of the people, stirred to utterance by the harangues of the distinguished counsel for the Terminal interests. If every man, woman and child of Wilmington, San Pedro and Terminal Island, however, could have entered a protest, would not have altered the law in the case? It is the policy of the common law to encourage ferries, and always has been, so long as they do not impede navigation."

"The board can grant as many franchises as the public convenience demands. There is nothing to hinder such action."

"But, suppose we should grant a franchise, and there were no place for a new ferry to land," interrupted President Davis.

"Then, after due notice, condemnation proceedings will give the necessary landings," answered Gibbon.

"But at San Pedro the Southern Pacific owns the entire waterfront. What good would a franchise do, when it might take years for condemnation proceedings to come to an end?" persisted President Davis.

"The Southern Pacific," answered Gibbon, "does not own the entire waterfront. I am informed that San Pedro owns sixty feet, and I am informed that private individuals own other portions."

"Would your franchise be exclusive during condemnation proceedings?" asked Deputy District Attorney Wilbur.

"The exclusive right to land or privilege, lies in the owner until condemned," replied Gibbon.

"If the board grants this privilege, it will probably insert restricting clauses," said Wilbur.

"They will be unnecessary," said Gibbon. "For law is law."

"But will you stipulate not to interfere with present privileges as now enjoyed?" asked President Davis.

"Any stipulations we might make would not count under the law," answered Gibbon.

Mr. Gibbon then touched on the covenant between Foster and the Catalina Yacht Club, and said that all the agreements in the deed did not amount to that (snapping his fingers). He closed by stating that the opposition, based on a legal standpoint, occupied not one tenable ground, and that all he asked in behalf of Muir's application was a fair consideration and a decision strictly in accordance with the law.

Before Gibbon had concluded, and after a hurried consultation with Dunn, they stated in answer to queries from the District Attorney that they were willing to stipulate to anything that the board would request.

Mr. Stegletto, City Attorney for San Pedro, made a few remarks, prior to the noon hour, in regard to San Pedro's ownership of a few feet of water front.

At the beginning of the afternoon session, Mr. Gibbon took occasion to state specifically that, in making his statements in the morning as to the power of the Board of Supervisors to insert certain tenable restrictions in granting franchises, he had overlooked some important cases in point that gave the board more power than he at first thought it possessed. He closed by stating that the board was at liberty to allow only those privileges it saw fit, regardless of the statutes of the State regulating such matters. "I make this statement," said Gibbon, "because if the Southern Pacific will waive the right to prohibit other ferries or interfere in government improvements, that is a matter between the parties stipulating, and is not covered by the statute."

"Will the courts of the country allow such waiving as against an open infraction of the statute?" asked Gibbon. Mr. Gibbon thought that if the franchise were granted, the Southern Pacific could waive any of the privileges the law might thus see fit to grant it. Mr. Gibbon then began his argument. He stated that he wished to ask the District Attorney a question. Mr. Wilbur had stated that in his belief from the protests of the citizens of San Pedro had no legal effect.

"But, Mr. District Attorney, should not the protests against this application have some legal effect, at least the same legal effect as the petition asking the special privilege," replied Gibbon.

Mr. Wilbur had also asked if Mr. Gibbon had not assisted in drawing up the three protests that had been filed in the morning. This Gibbon most emphatically denied, stating that, inasmuch as the people of San Pedro had always stood shoulder to shoulder with the Terminal Island people, they had come to him within the past few days and asked him to draw up some suitable form to express their feelings on the franchise to the Board of Supervisors. He had, of course, assisted them in so doing, but of the other protests he knew nothing, and without thought it somewhat unusual for the legal adviser of the board to inquire into questions of fact, which is generally not within the province of such an adviser.

In answer to Gibbon's contention that a stipulation would hold water in the courts, Gibbon cited an agreement entered into by the city of South Pasadena with the Terminal Railway some years ago, which the Supreme Court held was of no weight or legal standing whatever. It was a case in parallel with the agreement in question, the restrictions imposed by the statutes and invalid.

An infraction of the law cannot be given a legal status by any waiver which the Southern Pacific or anybody else might agree to make," said Gibbon.

At this point, Mr. Gibbon read a carefully-prepared argument, in which he "proposed to show that Mr. Muir's petition is a shameless and shameful attempt to serve the private interests of the most grasping, tyrannical and conscienceless organization that the public of this city and San Pedro has ever known, and to serve these interests at the expense of an enterprise which during the past eight years has spent millions of dollars to the direct benefit of the public of this county, this city and San Pedro, and to do such future harm to this enterprise as will entirely destroy it or so cripple it as to render it unable to give the same public an enormously greater benefit." He referred to the Southern Pacific and its alleged attempts to thwart the extension of the harbor property of the continental line via Salt Lake City. He dwelt on the importance of such a line, and the effect it would have in building up this great section. He pointed out the brilliant future of the southland, the value of the San Pedro Harbor and its added importance in view of the completed Nicaragua Canal. "The injury which might be done at the present moment by permitting a powerful hostile corporation to secure an entrance to the harbor property of the Terminal Railway Company is incalculable, and such injury cannot be accomplished without hurting this community in its most vital interests."

Gibbon carefully reviewed all the evidence before the board, and concluded by appealing to the good judgment of the Supervisors individually, when a matter fraught with such importance to the public weal was up for the proper solution.

Dunn then closed the fight, after speaking very briefly in favor of the application. He said the controversy was founded on public prejudice and not on law, and that the people of San Pedro had been most mightily misled. In conclusion he showed that the proposed ferry would accommodate the public and prove of great public value in the way of introducing most beneficial competition.

COUNTY STEWARD RESIGNS.

Two Applications for Position Already Before the Supervisors.

The resignation of Frank M. Warner, steward of the County Hospital, was tendered the Board of Supervisors yesterday. Inasmuch as Mr. Warner has completed arrangements to engage in other business, the board accepted his resignation. The chairman of the Hospital Committee was authorized to fill the vacancy temporarily, and he recommended that a young man by the name of Loomis, who is working his way through the medical department of the University of Southern California, be given the work until such time as the board should elect. Two applications for the position of steward are also before the board. F. Land and J. E. Ryan.

STORK CASE.

Attorneys Talk—Will Go to the Jury This Morning.

In the Stork forgery case yesterday the forenoon was taken up in rounding out some points in the testimony, and after dinner recess the argument began. Deputy Dist. Atty. McComas occupied about an hour in his address, and Attorney G. W. Saunders took up the remainder of the time until the adjournment, when the case went over until this morning. Mr. Saunders will finish his address and Mr. McComas will reply, when the case will go to the jury. The story as told by the witnesses has been along the line fully set forth in the press months ago, and the summary of the various points by Mr. McComas showed that Stork was the only person interested in the alleged forgery, that the disputed signatures were not even a clever representation of the true signatures in question, that Stork had at first stated to Witness Clark that he had a verbal agreement in the case, and had later presented the document purporting to be a contract signed by Mr. and Mrs. Nave. Mr. McComas claimed that the man McCarty, who figured in the transaction, was of the same character as Stork, and probably proceeded to rake and aft every person here and in Missouri who had a hand in helping Stork. Attorney Saunders did his best to convince the jury that the signatures in question were genuine, by attracting attention to minor features of the writing. During a good part of the argument the jury compared with evident interest samples of genuine signatures to those on the contract in question.

LEGALITY OF ORDINANCE.

Saloon-keepers Refuse to Pay County License Fees.

An important problem has arisen in the collection of the county liquor license, it being claimed by the saloon-keepers for them that nearly 100 saloons have refused to pay the fee, on the ground that the ordinance is not a sound one in point of law. Attachments were issued yesterday against some of these people. From Justice James's court, and after regular hours last evening one placed on the Vienna

Buffet, owned by Paul Kerkow, who is required to have a saloon license under the ordinance. The owner secured the release of the attachment by depositing $35 cash in court. About the same time an attachment was placed on the saloon and restaurant of Gunther & Meser, under the old Turner Hall on Spring street. This attachment was lifted on the deposit of $46 in cash. In each case the defendant was given five days in which to answer.

Mr. Norton, attorney for the saloon-keepers, is inclined to complain at the placing of the attachments, as he says that he was promised by Dist. Atty. Rives several days ago that he would be given ample time in which to prepare bonds in each case as it comes up before the attachments are placed.

Mr. Norton is rather inclined to take the bull by the horns, and yesterday he served the individual members of the board with a formal notice to the effect that a sufficient bond would be issued in each case, and requesting that he be furnished a list of those on whom the attachments would be placed, in order that they could give the bonds with the least annoyance possible. He further notified the Supervisors that they would be held personally responsible for any damage that might be done by the arrests in consequence of attachment proceedings.

BRIEFS.

Miscellaneous Legal and Other Items.

HERALD STOCK. The suit of J. P. Coyne vs. the Herald Publishing Company was submitted in Department Five of the Superior Court yesterday on briefs. The allegation is that Coyne paid for 4000 worth of stock in the Herald which was never delivered to him, and he now seeks the return of his money.

CHattel Mortgage. A chattel mortgage for $2200 in litigation in Department Five of the Superior Court. The mortgage in question was issued by Annie Collier to Charles W. Allen, and assigned by him to George Sterlen. It covers certain household goods in the building numbered 331 and 333 North Broadway. It is alleged in the complaint that a portion of the furniture has been removed from the building.

FOR PETTY LARCENY. Jim Lyness, sixteen-year-old boy, was brought to the County Jail yesterday from Pasadena and held on a charge of petty larceny.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Yesterday being Friday, but one couple defied the fates by taking out a license. They were John Chapman, a native of Pennsylvania, aged 34 years, resident of Santa Monica, and Annie E. O'Neill, a native of Ireland, aged 38 years, a resident of Los Angeles.

FORECLOSURE. The Stockton Savings and Loan Society yesterday filed suit against Thomas L. Orr, et al. for the foreclosure of a mortgage for $210 and interest, on the southeast quarter of section 18, township 8 north, range 13, San Bernardino meridian.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Committee Selects Name for the Park "Battleship."

The committee in charge of the Fourth of July celebration is working with great energy to make the affair a success. During the few days that intervene between now and the Fourth, a great deal will be accomplished. The merchants throughout the city have been liberal in their donations, considering that they have been called upon so frequently of late to contribute to various celebrations. At the meeting in the Stimson Block headquarters last evening, the name for the "battleship" that will be built at Westlake Park was selected. After considerable discussion, it was decided that the name "The American Boy," was appropriate. The intention is to include dedication exercises in the day's programme. The proverbial bottle will be cracked by some popular young lady, probably an ex-Mayor's daughter.

The committee has requested Capt. L. Reynolds to assume command of the "battleship" during the engagement, between "monitors" and the pseudo-war vessel.

The lower deck of the ship is already completed, and attention will henceforth be given to the superstructure. When everything is in readiness, those selected to manage the boat will have a rehearsal, for the purpose of becoming familiar with their duties, and thus avoid accidents that might otherwise occur. It has not as yet been fully decided whether or not to have the naval engagement terminate with an explosion of the ship. From the opinions expressed by several members, it would be better to permit the ship to escape unharmed.

WATCHES OUT OF WHACK.

Con Scheerer Did not Violate the Hitting Ordinance.

The watches of Officers Rosso and Henderson were either badly out of whack or somebody did some gross prevaricating in Justice Austin's court yesterday. Street Contractor Conrad Scheerer was arrested several days ago by Officer Rosso, on the charge of violating the hitting ordinance. Scheerer pleaded not guilty, and at his trial yesterday swore the officer out of countenance. Rosso testified that Scheerer's horse was hitched at First street and Broadway from 9:05 o'clock a.m. till 9:35 a.m., ten minutes over the limit. Officer Henderson testified that his attention was called to the rig at 9:10 o'clock. All the witnesses agreed that the arrest was made at 9:35, but Scheerer had witnesses to prove that he did not leave the Llewellyn Iron Works on that fateful morning until 9:10 o'clock; that it took him at least six minutes to drive to First and Broadway, and that it was therefore impossible to have hitched over the lawful limit of twenty minutes. In view of the conflict of testimony, Justice Austin gave the defendant the benefit of the doubt and adjudged him not guilty.

U. P.'s Withdrawal Discussed.

CHICAGO, June 30.—A meeting of the executive office of the Western Passenger Association was held today to consider the proposition of the Union Pacific Railroad to withdraw from the agreement entered into by the passenger associations of the country to give the government more reduced rates for the transportation of troops. The meeting was called upon a report that the Union Pacific had violated the agreement. The latter road claims that the compact was first broken by the Rock Island.

ACTIVITY

IN BUSINESS.

Why Americans Are the Leaders in the Business World.

Activity is natural to Americans. They are descendants of a line of sturdy, God-fearing men, who had the courage and strength to face a new work, and earth's great achievements always represent those whose hearts sang over the tasks.

Men's mental moods must needs reflect the physical. The lassitude that makes work impossible is a most trying thing to cope with. The possessor of it gets no sympathy. In those days of hurry a man who is not diligent in business stands out prominently as a weak specimen, generally a diseased man; more than likely it is this which is destroying his energy and courage.

In a world where a large average has succumbed to this kind of human happiness—disease—it is well that there are such reliable men as Dr. Sterling and his associate physicians of the Homo-Alo Medical Institute, whose skill has been a blessing to thousands of sufferers in Southern California. A man who takes care of his body is making himself a better man every day of his life. If you have lost vigor, premature decay, unnatural drains; if you have dizziness and palpitation, shortness of breath on exertion, nervousness, nervousness, nervousness, sudden nervous jumping during sleep, aggravating dreams, nightmare; if on arising in the morning dull headache, pain in the groin, no ambition, a disgust for food, drowsiness, loss of energy, nervousness, nervousness, nervousness, the above symptoms—no matter whether the weakened or debilitated condition is due to disease, worry, over-work, exposure, insomnia, or whatever cause, you should consult Dr. Sterling, chief consulting physician of the Homo-Alo Medical Institute.

It does not matter how many years you have suffered, nor how many physicians have given up your case, these physicians will give you a complete cure. Be freed of your sickness and become a man.

The offices of the Homo-Alo Medical Institute are at 345 South Spring street, Los Angeles, Cal. Call or write. All communications strictly confidential and all letters answered in plain envelopes.

DELEGATIONS OF N.E.A. VISITORS
BEGIN TO ARRIVE.Hundreds of Pounds of Fruit Will Be Distributed Today on Overland Trains—A Free Orange Orchard—Permanent Headquarters
Open.

Over 400 visitors from east of the State line arrived in Los Angeles yesterday. Eleven carloads of people came in on the Santa Fe overland. The six cars which formed one of the sections carried only delegates and their friends. Two cars were occupied by fifty-six teachers from Phoenix, and the remainder brought excursionists from many different eastern points.

It is believed that today will bring 400 people into the city. The Santa Fe expects to bring three trainloads of people into the city today from the East. Two special trains from Kansas City will arrive at San Bernardino at 4:45 and 5:05 o'clock respectively, barring accidents, reaching Los Angeles about two hours later. The regular overland train, which is due at San Bernardino at 8:30 o'clock, will be heavily loaded. The total number of Santa Fe passengers due tomorrow from the East is 265.

Next Monday Dr. Irwin Shepard, national secretary of the N.E.A., will arrive in company with a special carload of teachers from Winona, Minn. A special car party will arrive the same day from Cedar Rapids, Ia.

A delegation of four members of the Teachers' Fruit Committee, including Luther G. Brown (chairman), J. H. Francis, Ed. Dillard and A. C. Brown, and four members of the local Reception Committee, G. G. Johnson, J. M. Quinn, John R. Piper, and Mr. Burkhardt, went to San Bernardino last night and will meet the incoming Santa Fe trains today. They carried several hundred pounds of oranges, apricots, peaches, prunes and plums for the refreshment of the visitors. All trains coming in hereafter will be met by the Fruit Committee, and the "fruit nut butchers" will be driven out of business.

A feature that will prove interesting for the visitors is the orange orchard that will be thrown open for them to help themselves. The local committee has bought the crop upon the trees of a twelve-acre orange ranch at Tropic, within four blocks of the railroad station. The visitors may help themselves to all the fruit they want, picking it from the trees themselves. W. B. French visited the orchard yesterday on behalf of the local officials. He reports that it has been recently plowed, cultivated and irrigated, and that it is in the very best of condition. The fruit is chiefly Valencia late oranges. The oranges are ripe and sweet, and at their very finest.

A consignment of 20,000 N.E.A. buttons was received yesterday. Of these 15,000 have been put away, not to be given out until the convention begins, so as to make sure that all the delegates will receive them.

Judge Silent, chairman of the Finance Committee, has presented beautiful badges to all his fellow-members of the local Executive Committee. The badges are reproduced of official design, a lamp of learning and a palm leaf. The lamp is of gold, the palm leaf of green enamel, with the segments tipped with gold, and the legend is "N.E.A. 1899." The badge for Chairman Story of the committee has a wreath of banana and date palm leaves as border.

Subscriptions to the N.E.A. fund to the amount of $85 was received yesterday. Judge Silent reports that owners of property in the central portion of the city whose address assessed valuation is $15,000,000, have not contributed a dollar.

The transportation companies have evolved an excellent system for handling baggage. All baggage received will be distributed among ten piles, the basis of distribution being the final unit of the number of the baggage check. All checks the final figure of which is 2 will go in pile No. 2, and so on. This will make the finding of trunks very easy.

Chairman C. E. Boothe of the Railway and Excursion Committee says that everything is now in perfect order, the arrangements with all the roads complete, and the entire machinery ready to hum.

George N. Nolan was yesterday placed in charge of the business headquarters at No. 425 South Spring street. The booths have all been set up in a few days all will be occupied. The Catalina and Redondo booths were decorated yesterday.

The Teachers' Fruit Committee will open headquarters at No. 259 South Main street. Miss Nellie V. Hutchinson, the chairman, will be in charge. The school children will aid in supplying flowers for the visitors.

Charleston wishes to be the next convention city. The Chamber of Commerce yesterday received a letter from W. K. Tate, the chairman of Normal School describing the advantages of Charleston as a place for large conventions. A new convention hall, permanent in character, has recently been completed at a cost of $40,000. The auditorium seats comfortably 7500 people. On July 13 the convention will listen to speeches by the representatives of would-be convention cities.

The Reception Committee will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce.

An important meeting of the Entertainment Committee of the Sub-Committee on Halls will be held in room 10 of the Chamber of Commerce this morning at 10 o'clock. This will be the final meeting of the committee. Chairman Arthur G. Van Gorder urges that all members should be present.

Chairman Anderson of the Hotel Committee has his work down to the moment. Accommodations for 25,000 people are listed. The clerks of this committee are now engaged in transferring from the general registers to specially prepared blanks each apartment listed. These blanks are bound in book form with a stub for each, and delegates, as they apply for rooms, will be given blanks filled out, calling for such rooms as conform to the general location desired by the applicant and the price desired to be paid. This paper thus filled out constitutes an order for the apartment listed. This is a thoroughly comprehensive method and obviates any possibility of a duplication of orders.

The city teachers are to wear badges designed for them by Miss Louise Williams of the Hewitt-street school. The design consists of a broad white satin ribbon bearing a pepper branch in green and red with an appropriate inscription. Chairmen of the various sub-department committees who have not yet reported their arrangements for entertainments and receptions are desired to do so at once.

TIME OF TERMINAL TRAINS.
On and after July 2 for the beaches will be 8 a.m., 9:10 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 11:40 p.m., 5:05 p.m., 7:15 p.m., with a late train every Saturday at 11:30 p.m. The flyer for Catalina leaves daily at 9:10 a.m. All trains marked * run daily, others daily except Sunday.

REMEMBER the needy. Save your cast-off clothing, beds, bedding or stoves, for poor families of the city. A request is also made for shoes and clothing for poor children to enable them to go to school. Drop a card to Capt. J. A. Fraser, northwest corner Los Angeles and Seventh streets, and he will call for anything you have to donate.

Greatest of All

"Every one in San Antonio, Texas, says that Ackers' English Remedy is the greatest thing ever put up for coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and consumption. It has been using it over four years for all forms of throat and lung troubles, and have yet to come across a case where it failed. We have four little ones in our family, and neither my wife nor I have ever lost a night's sleep because of throat troubles among the children. I guess that is more than any other family can say. Ackers' English Remedy is just as effective for grown-up people as for the young. It seems to go straight to the place where the trouble lies in the throat and bronchial tubes and lungs. It soothes and heals the irritated tissues, loosens up the phlegm and mucus in the breathing passages, quiets the nerves, invigorates the constitution and stops the coughing. My advice to parents is to always keep a bottle in the house. It will be a constant safeguard against croup." (Signed)
F. G. ZIMMERMAN, San Antonio, Tex.

Sold at 25c, 50c and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s, 2s, 3s, 4s, 6s. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantees.

What Do These Numbers Mean?

IT DOES NOT SIGNIFY BECAUSE A MAN is able to go to his office every day, or to his store every day, that he is in perfect health. Men and women of sedentary habits are not proof against disease any more than are persons who lead more active lives. The man who sits at his desk all day long is just as likely to contract kidney disease as the man who wields a hammer or drives a team.

Kidney disease comes on insidiously, slowly, and surely, and, oftentimes, before one is aware of it, it has established itself. You can realize how essential it is to correct any weakness of these important organs (the kidneys) when you take into consideration the important duty the kidneys are called upon to perform.

These organs take from the blood the waste matter of the body and the impure elements that poison the system and, suffering and disease result.

When the kidneys become inactive the blood becomes impure, and the impure blood is distributed through the system, and suffering and disease result.

The health of the body depends upon their proper working, and, as every one knows, organic kidney disease is most destructive. Among them are Bright's disease and diabetes.

The GREAT HUDYAN, by means of its peculiar and most thorough curative process, will strengthen weak kidneys, will stimulate them when inactive and WILL CURE SERIOUS KIDNEY LESIONS. It has cured thousands of men and women of kidney disease. It will continue to cure.

The symptoms of kidney lesion are headache, (Fig. 1), puffiness under eyes, (Fig. 2), pain in side and back, (Fig. 3), pain in limbs, (Fig. 4), pain in joints, (Fig. 5). Other symptoms are swelling of ankles, excessive thirst, loss of appetite, tired feeling and general debility.

HUDYAN will cure you if you suffer from one or more of the above symptoms. Begin its use at once before the source of the kidney is destroyed. Rheumatism is very often a complication in kidney disorder. Hudyen will cure.

HUDYAN is a most valuable remedy in all those diseases peculiar to women. Hudyen cures all Kidney, Liver, Heart, Stomach, Nervous and Blood Disorders.

HUDYAN is for sale by druggists, 50c a package or six packages for $3.00. If your druggist does not keep it send direct to the

Flexible Rubber Dental Plates

Have many advantages over the old thick, cumbersome, ordinary rubber plates, and even over gold plates, being much lighter and thinner.

These plates are flexible, only a trifle thicker than heavy writing paper, fit closer and adhere better to the roof of the mouth. Particles of food and small seeds cannot get under them. They will last longer, are stronger than any others, and will not break, as they will give first, being flexible. Once tried none other will be desirable. Dr. Schiffman's own process, brought to the notice of the public by him only, and made ONLY by us. A perfect fit guaranteed in every case of plate work.

Persons having trouble with their plates or in having plates fitted, are invited to call and consult us.

Beware of Cheap Imitators and Professional Jealousy.

It is Folly to Pay Higher Prices Than Ours

For fine Dental Work. Our modern methods enable us to do the very best dental work of all kinds without pain, at prices within the reach of all.

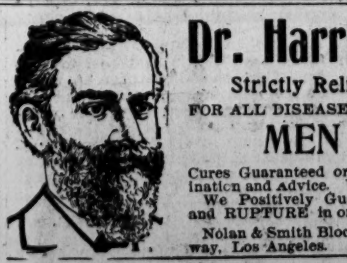

Our Guarantee is Good.

FRIDAY MORNING CLUB.

Year's Work Closed With Installation of New Officers.

The Friday Morning Club closed its year's work yesterday with a pleasant business and social meeting.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports for the year were read, and showed a membership of over three hundred, the finances in a satisfactory condition, and some thorough and original work done.

A brief history of the club, read by one of its first members, Mrs. Willis, was followed by the address of Mrs. Joseph Sartori, who has been elected president for a third term. She spoke of the growth of the club during its five years of existence, its branches of work, and in particular the new clubhouse to be built on Figueroa street, in which it is hoped the club can hold its first meeting in October.

The following officers were installed, after which the club adjourned to enjoy refreshments and a social half-hour: President, Mrs. Joseph Sartori; first vice-president, Mrs. R. N.
